Montreal, Canada July 9th 2012 – After making the decision to go international, PartnerCash has selected Montreal as its destination to open their first North American office. PartnerCash.com will now be in close proximity of their North American affiliates, providing them with new ideas & possibilities, along with reputable service and support, now available on EST.

The opening of the Montreal office enables PartnerCash to be closer to the market needs and fast paced environment while fully utilizing their experience and success in the European market over the last decade.

“I’m excited to hear that PartnerCash is coming to America (well Canada the next best thing), after an amazing track record in Europe and with their new reach to the North American market, having an office in Canada makes perfect sense to be available for their webmasters and customer service. I wish them best of luck” said Roy Salter Vice President of AVN Media.

As PartnerCash continues to cross international waters with their expansion into the North American market, they are also looking to expand their team. An inside source states that PartnerCash is accepting applications for those interested in joining the PartnerCash team in Montreal.
